

ORCHY & AWE

COMMUNITY TRUST

Development Co-ordinator

We are looking to appoint a Development Co-ordinator to help the Trust establish firm foundations in its first year of operation.

You will be a self-starter with great interpersonal and communication skills and will bring a proven track record in partnership working, community engagement, project funding and delivery.

This will be a great opportunity to make a difference in your local area. You will need easy access to and be able to be active within the communities covered by Glenorchy and Innishail Community Council.

This is initially a one-year post. £33,000 pro rata for 17.5 hours per week. There is also the possibility of some additional hours to support work on care, health and wellbeing.

The post will involve some evening and weekend work.
